THE DAILY MEMPHIS AVALANCHE.

By Gallaway, Hampton & Co.) MEMPHIS, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1867. (Volume Nine—Number 220

THE DAILY AVALANCHE

The House of Commons of the new Dominion of Canada will assemble in the last week of October.

John Castle, President of the Richmond (Virginia) Tobacco Exchange, died on the 13th.

Mike McCoole has challenged Joe Coburn to a trial of fisticuff for $10,000, and deposited $1000 in New York.

The Imperial Gazette of Moscow pays a high tribute to the course of the United States on the Cretan question.

The iron prow of the rebel iron clad Merrimac has been fished up, and a photograph is to be taken of it.

Mrs. Yelverton, of the celebrated divorce case notoriety, arrived in New York on Saturday from England. She intends giving readings.

The story that the President had issued orders for the reopening of registration in the South is authoritatively contradicted by the Intelligencer.

McCoole and Sheridan were received in St. Louis with extraordinary honors, and for a day they attracted much public attention.

A Havana paper tau[illegible] United States with the fact that of all the [illegible]governor[illegible]and statues proposed to the memor[illegible]oln, not one of them has been [illegible]

There are still [illegible] in this State, before the f[illegible] vote stands at present [illegible]922; Etheridge 21,896.

A young man nam[illegible] from Alabama, was brutally [illegible] recently near Clinton, Hick[illegible]. By wacky, by a ruffian named James Cu[illegible] who effected his escape.

A private dinner was given to General Beauregard, on Thursday night, in New York. He made a speech, in which he urged upon all the duty of building up the Union to that magnificent status to which its destiny evidently points.

Governor John W. Stevenson, of Kentucky, has issued a proclamation offering a reward of five hundred dollars for the arrest of Richard Keys, who murdered Miss Walker in Christian county on the first of August last.

Another leakage of whisky has been discovered in Brooklyn, New York. In the bonded warehouse of A. Miller, in a lot of two hundred barrels some seven hundred gallons have been abstracted very mysteriously.

J. W. Deer and Peter Lee were arrested in St. Louis on Friday on the charge of conspiring to rob the Government, in running a distillery in Illinois without furnishing the requisite bonds. Deer was recently a Government detective.

A horrible throat cutting occurred in Cuba, about nine miles from Havana, a short time since—a young and jealous Cuban, for purposes of revenge, first cutting the throats of his sweetheart and rival, and then finishing up by cutting his own.

The Democrats of New York city fired one hundred guns on Tuesday, in honor of the Democratic victory in California. It is some time since the Democrats heard such music, and they felt happy. The mongrels felt very blue.

A body of policemen from New York were detailed by Superintendent Kennedy, who is a Methodist, to keep the peace at a camp meeting. Many of them became converted, and forty of them held a prayer meeting on their own account.

It is ascertained that the President will appoint General Steedman Secretary of War immediately after the election in Ohio and Pennsylvania. General Gordon Granger will at the same time relieve Howard as Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau.

A company of wealthy Pennsylvanians have purchased forty thousand acres of land in Hickman and adjoining counties, and expect to go very largely into the iron business. In furtherance of this project they intend to build a railroad to Clarksville.

The efforts of the Government to secure a naval station in the West Indies have failed. Spain refuses to part with any of her territory, after having entertained a proposition for some time St. Domingo will not sell Samana, and Denmark never had any idea of disposing of St. Thomas.

General Escobedo reached Monterey on the 28th ultimo, and was received with great rejoicing. He made a speech, in which he denied the reports in circulation as to having insulted Americans at Queretaro, and said the name of Americans should always be dear to him, for to them he was indebted largely for his success.

The Savannah papers of the 12th chronicle the death of Noble A. Hardee, which occurred at Litchfield Springs, in Western New York, on Tuesday last. He had been a prominent merchant of Savannah for over twenty years, and was a brother of the gallant General William J. Hardee.

The Corinth (Mississippi) News favors the organization of an immigration society in Northern Mississippi to induce Germans to settle in that region. It says: "The Germans would soon have the hills of Tishomingo laden with rich grapes, and our country would flourish as plants on the water's edge, and look as fresh as a bride in nuptial attire."

The steam fire department of St. Louis had their tenth anniversary parade on the 14th, and made a fine show. After the parade there was a grand inspection at Lucas market place. The department embraces eighty-eight men, sixty-eight horses, ten engines, ten carriages, carrying one thousand six hundred feet of hose each, two hook and ladder trucks and ten fuel carts.

The last number of the Helena (Arkansas) Clarion announces that there will be a tournament at that place, October 3d, the proceeds of which are to be appropriated to benevolent purposes. General Thomas C. Hindman has been chosen orator of the day. The first prize is a valuable horse and equipments worth five hundred dollars. At night there is to be a grand coronation ball.

The Lexington Statesman says: "We are sorry to announce that the corn crop of Kentucky will be a very short one, perhaps not much above one-third of a crop. We learn that in some portions of the State that not more than five bushels to the acre, and in this region where the yield ought to be from fifty to sixty bushels to the acre, not more than thirty or forty will be raised. Corn is already selling at $3 25 a barrel in the field, and it is expected it will be as high as five dollars per barrel gathered and delivered. This looks gloomy, but so it is." The South can supply this deficit.

A Boston dispatch, of the 14th, says: "The internal revenue inspectors have seized in different parts of the city one hundred and seventy barrels of alcohol. The seizure was made in consequence of the reception of information that certain parties in Buffalo had been shipping spirits eighty per cent. above proof to this city, with directions to have them bonded. Upon their arrival here, instead of being put in bond, they were scattered through the city in small quantities, forged certificates of their reception by the collector, assessor and inspector having been returned to the Buffalo shippers for the purpose of satisfying officials there. It is stated that three hundred and fifty barrels are known to have been thus surreptitiously stored in Boston, and the officers are searching for the remainder. Prominent liquor dealers are implicated."

Juarez Refuses to Deliver Up the Body of Maximilian.

Wholesale Confiscation in Mexico.

The Administration of General Canby.

Order Establishing the Qualifications of Jurors.

NEW YORK, September 17, m.—Gold 144¾. Cotton is in moderate demand, though the market is weak and quotations nominally unchanged. Exchange steady, 9@10.

LIVERPOOL, September 17.—James Howell & Co., of Liverpool, a firm largely engaged in American trade, suspended yesterday. The extent of their liabilities is not stated.

RICHMOND, September 17.—The vote subscription of $1,500,000 to the stock in the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad was carried to-day by 1,500 majority—the negroes voting for it en masse. The opponents of the measure intend contesting the legality of the question, on the ground that by the supplemental reconstruction act the negroes have no right to vote.

HAVANA, September 17.—Advices from Mexico to the 8th and Vera Cruz to the 13th instant have been received.

Admiral Tegethoff appeared at the Mexican war office on the 6th, as a verbally authorized deputy from the relatives of the late Emperor Maximilian, to ask in the name of humanity the remains of the deceased. Juarez, having refused the request of Baron Magnus and other influential persons, said he could not deliver the body to Admiral Tegethoff, unless he presented the proper official documents from the relatives. When such documents were shown, he would permit the transportation of the body to Austria.

The property of Almonte, Urajo, Lala, Vanecea, Salleo and Cadeco Somero has been confiscated.

General Vuhe has been condemned, as a deserter, to imprisonment for four years.

Escobedo was well received at Salillo, and he, together with Lerdo and Juarez, is considered a candidate for the Presidency of the Mexican Republic.

CHARLESTON, September 17.—General Canby has issued the following: "Paragraph 3 of general order No. 2, dated May 26, 1867, is modified to read as follows: All citizens assessed for taxes and who shall have paid taxes for the current year, and who are qualified and who have been duly registered as voters, are hereby declared as qualified for jurors. It shall be a sufficient ground of challenge to competency of a person drawn as a juror that he has not been duly registered as a voter. Such right of a challenge may be exercised in behalf of the people or of the accused in all criminal proceedings, and by either party in all civil actions or proceedings. Any requirements of a property qualification for jurors, in addition to the qualifications herein prescribed, are hereby abrogated. The governments of North Carolina and South Carolina are hereby authorized and empowered to order, if it should be necessary, special terms of the courts to be held for the purpose of raising a sufficient jury lists and to provide for surrounding jurors in accordance with the requirements of this order. By command of Brevet Major General Canby.

LOCAL NEWS.

ITEMITAS.

Mayor Lofland was quite unwell yesterday.

Colonel Stidger, who rooms in the Provine block, was robbed of nearly all his clothing a few nights ago.

The rumor that there had been a case of yellow fever on Gayoso street last week proves to be unfounded.

Honorable T. B. McElwee is here by the appointment of the Governor to superintend the settling of the affairs of the Tennessee National Bank.

Leon Watson, a negro, complains that three white men at Nonconnah creek, choked him and tried to hang him. The parties are to be arrested.

Dan. Jones, a negro, was arrested yesterday, on the charge of stealing a lot of harness, and Barney Conners for stealing a load of wood.

J. Behr & Brother have sold out their retail grocery, at the corner of DeSoto and Union streets, and will hereafter carry on a wholesale grocery business at No. 38 Jefferson street.

A house on the Hernando road, belonging to Mr. S. Freeman was robbed Sunday night of a lot of clothing and a gold watch amounting to near two hundred dollars.

A portion of the paving on Main street has been sublet to Messrs. Taylor, McBean & Co., who will commence work this week.

United States Circuit and District Court meets to-day at ten o'clock, in the Waldran block, on Main, below Beale street.

The boat race between the Magnolia and Ivanhoe will come off at half-past five o'clock Saturday afternoon. They will run from the foot of Market to Beale streets, and back again, a distance of six miles is to be the prize.

As the recent seizure of tobacco for alleged frauds on the revenue, seemed to reflect on Messrs. Kirkham, Brown & Graham, a friend desires us to direct attention to a statement in the Cairo Democrat, which fully exonerates those gentlemen from the charges alleged.

United States Circuit and District Courts will be held in the Waldran block. Judge Swayne says he does not wish to remain to try cases of which his brother Judge (Trigg) has jurisdiction, and will therefore to-day begin the trial of cases appealed to the United States Circuit Court.

A Confederate officer commits his an outrageous assault committed at the Stonewall House, by four residents of Grand Junction, upon an inoffensive black man named George Mitchell, who served with much credit in the Confederate army. The complainant seems to censure the Stonewall House. We cannot believe the facts of the case.

Though business is not yet very brisk, it is evident that times are brightening. Business men are hopeful and smiling. Last year the cotton crop was a failure, money was scarce and the prospect was gloomy enough; but this year the cotton crop is pretty fair and the corn crop very large throughout the country. Everything promises an increase of trade and prosperity to our city.

The Circuit Court met yesterday, Judge Reeves presiding. A grand jury was impannelled, and J. D. Withberly appointed foreman. The trial docket will be called to-day, and where a good defence do not appear, the plaintiff will be allowed to claim judgment. The term of the Circuit Court will continue four weeks, then a recess will be taken to enable Judge Reeves to hold a fortnightly term at Somerville, after which he will return to this city to finish up the docket. The State docket will be called on next Monday.

Owing to sickness in the family of the gentleman who was to lecture this evening in aid of the Fancy Thanton Fund, he cannot appear, and there will be no lecture this week. The following gentlemen have promised to lecture during the season, and our citizens may expect an intellectual treat: Rev. Dr. Guilford Jones, September 25; Colonel N. W. Clusky, October 1; Colonel Ed. Pickett, October 8; Mr. Edward C. Jones, October 15; Hon. W. T. Avery, October 22; and George W. T. C. Humes, October 29.

Mr. Milliken, the young man who was kidnapped by the United States authorities and taken to Louisville for trial, but afterward brought to LaGrange, is still in charge of the military. On Saturday a writ of habeas corpus was served on Lieutenant Hugo, who had him in charge, and yesterday Lieutenant Hugo desired Milliken to make his return. As the object is solely to confer with his superior officers, and as it was stipulated that Mr. Milliken should not be closely confined, but should have the liberty to go about with the guard, Messrs. Bullock and Wallace, the attorneys for Mr. Milliken, made no objection.

Three newsboys attempted to steal a basket of champagne a whisky shute, yesterday, but were discovered, and after a hard chase two of them were captured. The mackerels are getting to be an late orably numerous in our city. The losses from their depredations are almost probably to ten thousand dollars a month, and comprise snack thefts, burglaries and larcenies. They are frequently arrested, confined for a few days and then let loose again, to prey upon the community. Mayor Lofland's suggestions for the establishment of a House of Refuge, would, if carried out, be a great benefit to Memphis.

MUNICIPAL COURT.—The following rules of practice was made of record in this court on yesterday:

Ordered, That the number seventeen of the rules of practice of this court be so amended as to read, The clerk shall keep a book, to be called the motion docket, in which all motions, except motions for continuance, judgments by default for want of plea, motions to dismiss for want of declaration, and all motions in which parties are entitled, of course, shall be entered. The motion shall entitle the cause to be docketed, and shall specify the grounds on which the moving party intends to rely, and shall be entered at least two days before the same is to be heard, and all affidavits, in order to be used on the hearing of any motion, must be filed in the cause on or before the time of entering the motion, or the same will not be allowed to be used, except upon special leave of the court upon cause shown. And upon motion day the motion docket shall be called of all such motions in their order, and shall be heard and disposed of by the court, unless continued by the court at the request of the party upon cause shown.

To-day the first call of the trial docket will be had, and some few cases on writs of inquiry will be taken up and disposed of.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.—When Daniel Webster was at his last gasp he feebly ejaculated, "I still live," and in imitation of his illustrious example the Chamber of Commerce, which has been on its last legs for a long time, announces that it is going to have an election. We like this. It shows American character—it shows the ruling plan of the country. Everything promises an increase of trade and prosperity to our city.

Our people can't get along without elections. Some of them vote two or three times at every election, and if anything can resuscitate the Chamber of Commerce no one questioned it must be a chance to vote for somebody or other. Abstractly considered, it really don't make much difference whether it is resuscitated or not as far as any advantage is to be derived from it in the furtherance of trade. When Timothy Dexter sent warming pans to the West Indies they were found very useful indies for dipping up molasses, and as nothing is created in vain we are sanguine that the Chamber of Commerce will yet prove a very useful institution, but as yet it is to all evidence of our midst of doing business. Some children require more soothing syrup to raise them than they're worth when they are raised, and perhaps a Board of Trade would suit us now better than the Chamber of Commerce will when we grow big enough to need it. It is, however, a creditable thing, and if we can't have a Board of Trade we hope still to have a Chamber of Commerce that will continue to be as efficient as ours has been, if not more so.

WEDNESDAY, : : : : SEPTEMBER 18, 1867

GREAT men and powerful parties are frequently toppled over by insignificant causes. A crust of bread choked a famous philosopher of antiquity to death, and a grape-seed lodging in the windpipe of ANACREON suffocated the illustrious poet. PYRRHUS, after conquering half the world, in the moment of victory, was knocked on the head by an old, toothless hag, who, standing on the roof of a dilapidated house dropped a tile on the pate of the mighty warrior as he entered the gates of a conquered city. The pommel of a saddle bruised the fat paunch of WILLIAM of Normandy and he speedily became food for worms. AS ÆSCHYLUS was sitting in his grove motionless and in silent meditation he was killed by an eagle which dropped a tortoise upon his bald head for the purpose of breaking the shell. A slight arrow wound in the shoulder extinguished the vital spark of that terrible thunderbolt, "RICHARD CŒUR DE LEON." A jest has sometimes kept nations pecking at each other for years, whilst a question of etiquette, respecting the wife of a secretary is said to have been the real cause of the dissolution of General JACKSON'S first cabinet. General U. S. GRANT has not been quite killed politically by insignificant causes but he has been dangerously wounded. A little steel pen, not over an inch long came near doing for him—what the tile did for PYRRHUS—or the tortoise for the Grecian poet. NAPOLEON rode into eternity upon a fierce and tempestuous storm. There is something grandly sublime in seeing a great man trumpeted out of the world by the soaring blast, the muttering thunders and the flashing lightnings. It is not hard to die amid the roar of battle and the clangor of arms; but it is a sad destiny that kills great men with hairs and grape-seed—to suffer just such a political death as terminated the short career of General GRANT. Verily has his race been fleeting. General SCOTT never survived his "thasty plate of soup" letter and it will be difficult for General GRANT to efface the injury which his letter to the President has brought upon his great name. The reply of the President was a crusher. To kill a wasp it is not necessary to strike it, to pierce it, to bruise it, or crush it, but simply to let fall one drop of oil upon it, when after wriggling and struggling for a moment and thrusting out its sting the insect quirls up and dies. The few drops of ink which the President let fall upon General GRANT has been equally as fatal. We regret to see General GRANT'S usefulness to the country so suddenly impaired by an act so foolish and unwise. We earnestly trust he will outlive the fanaticism which he has exhibited in his first political move, and rise to that dignity and lofty statesmanship, which the country expects to find in one who has now an imperishable renown. If the brave are the daring, so are they the tender and loving, and since, General GRANT was a great soldier, a triumphant hero it was supposed he would be a generous and magnanimous conqueror. But his letter to the President exhibits no such nobleness. If he can soar above the passions of the hour and throw the weight of his great name in the scale of peace, justice, equality and reconciliation, the Conservatives—the patriots and statesmen of the land will turn their faces towards him with that faith and hope with which the worshippers of the sun used to look to heaven. General GRANT has a splendid opportunity for making fame as a statesman bright and refulgent as that which surrounds his military glory. Will he be equal to the occasion?

We still hear of the most exaggerated accounts in the country of sickness in Memphis. It is reported that not only the cholera is here but that the yellow fever is raging with alarming fatality. It is useless for us to say that all such reports are false, wholly and entirely. Memphis was never more healthy than at the present time. Indeed it may be said that the business has already commenced, indicating that October will be a busy month. Customers from the country can now visit Memphis with as little risk from an epidemic as in the month of November or December. All hindrances to the early resumption of trade being out of the way, we shall look for the arrival of dealers from the country in throngs, and the birds of passage who have been making a tour abroad, must return home soon if they intend to share in the benefits of an early season. Thus far the indications are quite encouraging. The mercantile classes are more hopeful, on account of large crops, and the expectation is indulged of lucrative and extended operations. Preparations are making on a corresponding scale for the accommodation of customers. Persons in the surrounding country are finding out that purchases can be made on as reasonable terms in Memphis as at more remote cities—that by visiting here occasionally a long and expensive trip to the North annually can be avoided, and better bargains found besides. Our merchants are aware of this, and with a view to the increased custom of the country are augmenting their capital and enlarging their stock, is determined to sell at the lowest prices, and to place the market in Memphis on a par with the Atlantic cities. This is no idle boast. The enterprise and the capabilities are here. Memphis is, and ever must be, the emporium for the staples and products of a vast and unbounded country, and eventually the other branches and departments of trade will concentrate on the same point. Memphis is destined to be the great city of the Southwest. Again we say to our absent citizens, come home. The city is healthy. There is no epidemic here. Business is looking up, and everybody is preparing to commence anew the race to prosperity and happiness.

General Mower Assumes Command at New Orleans.

Failures in New York and Liverpool.

Dedication Ceremonies at Antietam.

Removal of Government Funds from Mobile.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, September 17.

General Mower in his order assuming command, continues in force the existing orders of his predecessors, and assigns Brevet Major General Reynolds to the command of the District of Texas, and Brevet Brigadier General Mackenzie to the command of the District of the Rio Grande. General Reynolds is to establish his headquarters at San Antonio at once, until the fever shall have abated sufficiently at Galveston to remove them there.

There were sixty-eight deaths from yellow fever for the twenty-four hours ending at six o'clock this morning. Among them was E. W. Sherbourne, Special Agent of the Treasury Department.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, September 17.

Gillett & Noyes, in the tea trade, have failed. Their liabilities are about half a million. Their obligations are chiefly in the hands of banks and private capitalists, who bought them.

The splendid new frigate Wompanog went into commission to-day to cruise for a few months.

Reports are current to-day of other cotton failures in Liverpool, though the names are not given.

MEADVILLE.

MEADVILLE, September 17.

The dedication of the Antietam National Cemetery took place to-day. The following programme was carried out: The military and Masonic bodies escorted the President and party to the cemetery, where, in the presence of an immense throng the exercises were opened by prayer. Governor Swann, on assuming the presidential chair, tendered a welcome to President Johnson and the Governors of the States who came there to participate in the ceremonies. After alluding to the part taken by Maryland in establishing the cemetery, he said, "We are here to the calm sunshine to mingle tears of sorrow with those whose sacrifices and lives for their country upon this field," and invoked the Almighty to give speedy harmony to the whole country. A hymn was then sung by the assemblage, and the corner stone was laid by the Grand Master. The oration was then delivered by ex-Governor Curtin, who, after referring to the duties which persons present, stated that in response to a vote of thanks from Maryland to the army for protecting the State from the rebels, the commander of this army has committed the remains of those who fell, to the care of the State, and the details of the action taken by the State in the matter, were given. The numbers engaged on the field of Antietam, on the Union side, was 87,164 while the rebel force was estimated at 97,000. The gruesome campaigned of the enemy were then referred to, and the anxiety of mind depicted on every face, the disasters to the army under Pope, its shattered conditions, its reorganization by McClellan, and victory won over the Confederate hosts of the rebellion by that reorganized army, were dwelt on at great length, with many references to facts and circumstances. He concluded by urging adherence to the Constitution, and said, "Come the pretzels from whence it may, from Stuber rights or consolidated, let me be e, on the anniversary of its adoption, in the name of the men who made it, and in the name of those who died for it, here on this field, in its behalf, appeal to you to preserve, protect and defend it." The patriotic tone and sound sense remarks followed from the President and others, and the ceremonies closed with a benediction. Salutes were fired during the procession and at the close. Everything passed off quietly.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, September 14.

The revised regulations of allowances of the allowance to draw back on Internal Revenue taxes on exported merchandise, has been issued by the Secretary of the Treasury, to take effect on the first of October.

The returns of the Attorney General's office show that a large number of the Southern people are taking the oath under the recent proclamation.

In anticipation of the yellow fever reaching Mobile, and the place being abandoned by the Government officials, General Spinner, United States Treasurer, has, from prudential motives, thought proper to withdraw the Government funds deposited there, and place them in some city farther North.

Public Sale

OF

ON TEN YEARS' CREDIT.

I PROPOSE to sell at public sale, to the highest bidder on THURSDAY, the 24th of November, 1867, about three hundred acres Field and Forest land, on my Homestead Tract, situated three miles east of Memphis, at the head of Union avenue, and lying between Central avenue and the Old Slade Lisle road. The most popular street pavements being now in process of construction in Memphis, good turnpikes or street railways on the roads leading from the city directly through this property, must soon follow, thereby affording the most reasonable probability of its great and rapid enhancement of value.

In stating the advantages of this property, I would especially refer to the HEALTH of the locality as having been always considered equal if not superior to that of any portion of the city environs; while the high character of the neighborhood, and the provision made for CHURCH AND SCHOOL PRIVILEGES, combine to render it one of the most desirable points for any suburban residence which the vicinity of Memphis affords.

The TITLE to this property has been vested in my father and myself for thirty years without interruption and is free from any incumbrance.

THE SUBDIVISION OF THE GROUNDS will be in lots of about FIVE ACRES, according to plats to be seen at the office of the Auctioneers. The avenues will be opened and the lots numbered so as to be readily examined before the day of sale.

BEING DETERMINED TO SELL, I shall offer the following liberal

TERMS:

One-tenth Cash, the balance in TEN ANNUAL INSTALMENTS, with interest from date. Warranty Deeds given, and Trust Deeds taken, waiving redemption. These terms will make it very easy for any one to secure a pleasant Home, which must constantly increase in value and comfort, as the growth of Memphis continues. N. M. TREZEVANT.

THE DISCOVERY OF THE AGE

NO material which has ever been discovered has effected greater benefits in the household economy than

McGILSEY'S MAGIC SOAP.

IT is a labor saving invention as well as an invaluable remedy in scurvy, scald head, eruptions of the skin and piles. Dandruff is removed from the head, the teeth whitened and cleansed, glass and jewelry cleaned, stains effectually removed from carpets, furniture, clothes, paint, varnish or marble with the greatest facility and without injury to the material. It is a great saving of time and labor in washing clothes. It is the only Soap ever put up which will wash flannels with the ease of cotton or linen without fulling or shrinking. All these important effects can be effected without injury to the skin or the most delicate fabric. It possesses no deleterious quality in whatever form it is used, but is composed entirely of such which possess so many valuable properties, and which is so innocent and mild. It is a boon to mankind, and defies competition in any part of the world. It has become a necessity in Memphis, and its use is rapidly spreading throughout the South, and eventually will extend over the Pacific States. Manufactured solely by P. McGILSEY, Memphis, Tenn., and can soon be found at any respectable family grocery or drug store. The proprietors are determined at all manufacture shall keep pace with the rapidly extending demand for its use.

FRENCH MEDICINES PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & COMPANY

Chemists to His Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon.

THESE different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of chemistry and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as th-ir name generally indicates their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They differ from those numerous nostrums so advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to not a very few complaints. The most eminent men exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved efficacious, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorized by the government. This fact must be a guarantee for the confidence of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO.'S medicines.

Dr. Leras' (Doctor of Medicine) Liquid Phosphate of Iron.

The newest and most esteemed medicine in cases of CHLOROSIS, PAINS IN THE STOMACH, DIFFICULT DIGESTION, DISMENORRHŒA, ANÆMIA, GENERAL DEBILITY and POORNESS OF BLOOD. It is particularly recommended to regulate the functions of nature, and to all ladies of delicate constitution, as well as to persons suffering under any kind of debility whatsoever. It is the preservative of health par excellence in all warm and relaxing climates.

No More Cod Liver Oil—Grimault's Syrup o Iodized Horse Radish.

This medicine has been administered with the utmost success in the hospitals of Paris [illegible] perfect substitute for COD LIVER OIL, and has been found most beneficial in DISEASES OF THE LARYNX, SCROFULA, ASTHMATIC DISORDERS, GLANDULAR SICKNESS, MUSCULAR ATONY and LOSS OF APPETITE. It [illegible] solution in purifying the blood, it being the most powerful depurative known. It has also been applied with [illegible] DISEASES OF THE SKIN. Further, it will be found to be of great benefit to young children suffering [illegible] DESTRUCTION OF THE GLANDS.

Consumption Cured—Grimault's Syrup of [illegible] Lime.

This new medicine is considered to be a sovereign remedy in cases of [illegible] OF THE LUNGS. It promptly removes all the most serious symptoms. The cough is [illegible] and the patient is rapidly restored to health.

N. B.—Be sure to see that the signature of GRIMAULT & CO. is affixed [illegible] to imitations.

No More Difficult or Painful Digestion—D[illegible]'s (Laureate of the Paris Imperial Academy of M[illegible] Lozenges.

This delicious preparation is always prescribed by the most reputed [illegible] of the ingredients of the digestive functions, such as GASTRITIS, GASTRALGIA, LUNG AF[illegible], wind in the stomach and bowels, EMACIATION, JAUNDICE and COMPLAINTS OF THE [illegible]

Nervous Headaches, Neuralgia, Diarrhea, [illegible], Instantly Cured by Grimault's Guara[illegible].

This vegetable substance, which grows in the Brazils, has been employed since time immemorial to cure INFLAMMATION OF THE BOWELS. It has proved of late to be of the greatest service in cases of CHOLERA, as it is preventive and a cure in cases of Diarrhea.

Ferro Manganic Powder, prepared by Burin du Buisson, approved by the Academy of Medicine in Paris.

A small quantity of this powder in a glass of water is sufficient to obtain instantly an effervesing mineral and gaseous water to be drank at meals, either pure or united with wine or mineral waters.

It is a most valuable medicine for persons suffering from Chlorosis, Stomach Aches, and for Ladies suffering from Difficult or Suppressed Menstruation. It is especially recommended to persons unable to digest the ordinary medicines containing iron. This celebrated preparation has the advantage to prevent all tendency to consumptions, and to cure the consumption of [illegible], considered by the most eminent medical men as indispensable in cases of treatment by ferruginous medicines.

No More Copaiba and Cubebs—Grimault's Capsules and Liquid Extract of Matico Vegetalis.

Where all other medicines have failed these preparations will always effect a cure. They insure rapid and extraordinary cure of severe, recent and chronic cases of private diseases. They are used in the hospitals of Paris by the celebrated Dr. Ricord, and are found greatly superior to all hitherto known mineral remedies and copaiba and cubebs. The injection is used in recent and capsules in the more chronic cases.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?—A correspondent says: "A gang of armed negroes lying in ambush, with pickets thrown across the Raudolph road, were discovered by a party of gentlemen early yesterday morning. We are informed that such is the case on most of the roads leading from this city, but have yet to learn of any steps being taken by the police authorities to disperse such gangs, or punish offenders." We presume the negroes had been out coon hunting and were playing war. If they molest anybody the citizens in the vicinity should drive in their pickets.

WHAT ARE THE BLACKS COMING TO?—Not satisfied with firing off pistols at all hours of the night and getting up rows continually in their saloons, they have recently, on several occasions, had big fights at their churches. On last Sunday a party of them attacked a church in South Memphis, near the outskirts of the city, they threw stones, they broke the windows and hurt quite a number of the church people. Some of the colored men in the church, when they saw the women and children struck, returned the missiles, and a general fight ensued. Having thus vigorously propounded the peaceful gospel, and being notified that the police were coming they postponed the final settlement of the case until a future occasion.

A SHARP TRICK ON A CANDIDATE.—A very good joke is told in relation to the canvassing for votes at the last election. B. F. C. Brooks, Esq., had no loyal leagues to back him, but his record was better than that of any other Radical candidate, consequently an effort had to be made to crowd him down. It is notorious that he had no fair chance at even Radical assemblages, and that his tickets were taken out of the hands of colored voters and others given to them. These tricks were however less amusing than one that was played on Dr. Brooks when he went out to Bartlett station to electioneer. It has just come to light, and is too good to remain untold. The Doctor's forte is quiet persuasion, and when near Bartlett he stationed himself by the roadside to hail each passing black going to the meeting, which was some half a mile distant. He hoped thus to sow good seed in their minds, and prevent their being propelled by the spurious of his enemies and rivals. The dodge was good, and there is no knowing what the seeding might have been if it had been fairly carried out; but unluckily some fellow who did'nt like the Doctor's performance went a quarter of a mile further down the road than the point at which he was stationed, and as each black, or gang of blacks, came along they were warned that a dangerous looking fellow was on the road between them and the meeting, that he was armed, and was undoubtedly there to rob colored folks. When the blacks came along to where Dr. Brooks was waiting he blandly stepped up to meet them. They backed, and as he approached began to retire. When he quickened his pace to come up with them they started on a run and the Doctor was utterly unable to get within gun shot of them again. Not a nigger among them wanted to talk politics with the fellow whom they suspected of wishing to rob them.

DOINGS OF THE CITY FATHERS.

The Meeting Last Evening.

An important meeting of the City Fathers was held last evening.

Mayor Lofland sent in a message vetoing the ordinance authorizing the election to determine whether one hundred thousand dollars of city bonds should be given for stock in the Gayoso Gas Company. He stated that he would favor such election it the amount was changed to a more fitting amount and suggested that if the Board of Aldermen would reconsider their action and pass an ordinance authorizing an election to favor the giving two hundred and fifty thousand dollars of city bonds to the Gayoso Gas Company for stock he would favor the proposition. The Mayor's suggestion was well received, and the ordinance that he suggested authorizing an election to determine public sentiment in regard to issuing two hundred and fifty thousand dollars of city bonds to be given to the new gas company for stock was passed.

Alderman Lynn sent in his resignation, and Napoleon B. Hill who had been selected to fill the vacant Aldermanship of the Fourth ward sent in his declination. Consequently the Fourth ward is unrepresented in the City Council.

Two ordinances were passed fixing the tax on the property per front foot opposite which the Nicolson pavement is put down. The rate is ranges from nine to eighteen dollars per front foot. That on Main street is highest.

The Landing Committee reported in favor of building two jetty's, one on the Arkansas shore some distance above the city and the other at our landing. They propose that the expense of building these jetty's should be met by an appropriation of one half the revenues of the landing.

A memorial from the butchers was presented, and also a report from the Committee on Markets, in favor of leasing the stalls of our markets for five years, and requiring two years pay in advance. This passed the first reading.

A number of resolutions relative to improvements, the opening and grading of streets and repairing of sidewalks, were passed, and then the Council adjourned.

A RADICAL MERCHANT WANTS TO SHOOT A RADICAL JUDGE.—Radicalism was a good deal exercised yesterday by a fracas that occurred the day before. Nobody understood exactly what it was about. Some said that it was political, others, that it was something about a woman, those best informed considered it both. It seems that two highly respectable ladies once upon a time entered the store of a Main street merchant. They were goodly to look upon; they were married ladies; they were family connections of a Radical Judge. The husband of one of these ladies keeps a store. The ladies each bought goods. One paid, and when the other asked for her bill, she had slipped into her hand the following little note:

"Your bill is settled. Go out Beale street to Causey, down Causey to second street, beyond station house 10, Brown's Ave us, at five o'clock."

When this note was handed the look that accompanied it seemed to say, "Go and be happy! go! go!" She didn't go. She didn't want to go. But she handed the note to the Radical Judge, with a request that he would accertain what kind of a show there was at No. 10 Brown's avenue. The Judge went to the store of the merchant's friend, and asked about the lady who had left the store. Without informing the merchant that his epistle had been shown. The Judge then went to Brown's avenue and ascertained that the place was luxuriantly furnished, and much resorted to, but not exactly the place he would wish any of his family to go to. He kept all the matter, however, to himself. The merchant had been devoted to Southern rights which was certainly commendable, but before or after the negro bounties began to come up and the trade of colored "possums" began to become more fertile to applied for Radical patronage, the Council, but Lincoln Council concluded that the virtue of their present members was all they could stand, and the merchant was black balled. When a man wants to get into a good thing it won't do for him to give it up at one re-uff, so failing to get into the white loyal league, this excellent merchant was pressed for admission into the Brownlow Council, a colored loyal league. But the colored folks didn't want any more of "dese white fellows cryin' round dere," and again the black balls ruled out political affinities, and so this is all a myth, perhaps there was not any merchant or any blackballing in loyal leagues, or any notifying other councils that they mustn't take this merchant in. We are not a prophet, nor the son of a prophet, and therefore must settle how much of the story is true. The merchant seems to have called on the judge, who was suspected of leversing the blackballing through, to know what he had against him. The probability is that the judge wouldn't tell. So, on Monday the merchant and two friends called at the judge's house, and not finding him there, proceeded to the door of the court room, where a pistol was drawn, a push given, and the assertion made that he shouldn't enter the court room until he satisfied himself. This was however avoided by the opportune arrival of police officers, who took the merchant in charge. Yesterday he was fined for carrying concealed weapons, no other charge being pressed.

THE WORSHAM HOUSE.—A good hotel is a blessing to any community, for it not only makes its guest feel at home, but gets the praise of all transient customers, whose remarks either give to strangers good or bad opinions of a city. If an hotel then is a blessing, the Worsham House deserves more than a passing remark, for it is one of the best in the country. The fact is, C. B. Galloway, its gentlemanly proprietor, understands how to keep an hotel, and spares neither exertions or money to make his house what it should be and to render it a comfortable home to those who have none. His table is not to be surpassed, for Mr. Galloway does all his own purchasing, and whatever the market affords he is sure to have. Moreover, he pays strict attention to and supervises everything himself. As a landlord he probably has no superior; for he understands every department of an hotel, and in order to know that nothing shall be wanting he acts as his own steward. The rooms and beds of the Worsham are unsurpassed. Mr. Galloway has as polite and attentive assistants as are to be found any place. Mr. Philips, the book keeper, is a perfect specimen of the true gentleman. C. E. Miller and Sam Finley, the clerks, with Henry Greer, the night clerk, form a trio of as amiable and sociable good fellows as ever gave a guest good accommodations. An eye to good waiters has also been kept at the Worsham; everything is politeness and attention among them, and too much praise on this account cannot be paid to Thomas Borland, the head waiter. Families stopping at this house will find Miss Maggie McDonald a housekeeper of the first order. The truth is, that all who put up at the Worsham House take such a liking to its kind hearted landlord, and the neat and clean manner in which everything is kept, that they always stop there again.

MONETARY.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
WEDNESDAY, September 18.

Money matters were dull to-day. Gold opened in New York at 40½, and at one p.m. had advanced to 41¾. The offerings in this market were small to-day; some were in favor of selling rates but as few sales were taken at 3@ over our outside quotations Silver is unchanged in rate. A few small lots were bought at par.

EXCHANGE—Light demand, but no change in rates. Eastern selling at 1@1½ premium.

CITY SCRIP—Active; advanced to 82 buying. Dealers sell at 83@84.

POLICE SCRIP—In demand, and brokers offer 80 for all pre sented; selling at 82@83.

COUNTY WARRANTS—Dull; buying at 67 and selling at 70@72.

There were sales reported of bonds or stocks.

In regard to the recent bank failure in Brooklyn, the New York Post says:

The action of the Controller of the Currency in closing up so promptly the defaulting bank of Brooklyn, is much commended. It is believed that no preserved creditors have been able to draw their money in advance of the appointment of the receiver, so that there will be a better prospect for the depositors who have thus been more protected against losses than might otherwise have been the case.

The assessment of the stockholders, who will be compelled to pay, according to the bank law, an amount equal to the par value of their shares, will add $500,000 to the assets of the bank.

The liability which rests on all stockholders to make up the losses out of their own pockets, will, no doubt, inspire the holders of such investments with a salutary desire to satisfy themselves as to the sound, careful management of the banks in which they are interested. And not only should the stockholders in the national banks accept the admonition which the failure of the Farmers and Citizens' Bank suggests and enforces; but the directors may, perhaps, learn by experience that their duties are not mere nominal, but extend to a frequent examination of the affairs of the institution of which they are constituted the guardians. What remedy the law affords to the imporverished stockholders ag inst their directors, in case of negligence, may, perhaps, be tested in some of the future developments of this affair.

COMMERCIAL.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
WEDNESDAY, September 18, 1867.

COTTON.—The market is about as it was yesterday. No sales of importance to note; however, the feeling continues to be the quotations are steady.

The glass trade of Pittsburg continues depressed and prices ruin very low. The only of the window glass factories are in blast, but several others will be fired up during the coming week, the manufacturers intending bridging over the fall trade with labor at the present enormous rates. If possible, and hoping the blowers and other skilled labor employed by them will see the necessity for a reduction and propose it themselves. The present prices of glass are full of wrongs and injustice, prices far below the cost of production here, and our manufacturers say they must either get an early reduction on price of labor or close their factories.

GENERAL MARKET.

[NOTE.—Our quotations are the wholesale prices unless otherwise stated. In filling small orders to the city or country trade an advance of three to five per cent is obtained.]

RIVER NEWS.

AVALANCHE OFFICE,
WEDNESDAY, September 18.

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

We have had several days of hot, sultry weather, and yesterday was but little behind any of its predecessors for heat. The river falls daily. There are but thirty inches scant to Pine Bluff and twenty-six inches from the Bluff to Little Rock, and sixteen inches to Fort Smith. Ohio is falling, with scant thirty-four inches to Louisville. On Phillips' bar there is heavy six set, and boats are daily arrested at that place as effectually as if it were a quarantine station. From here to Vicksburg the channel is bad, but we have so far heard of no trouble below Vicksburg except in the case of the Henry Atkins. The Wabash is lower than it has been for twenty-five years.

IN PORT.

DES ARC, Ozark.

MISCELLANEOUS.

On Sunday last, Captain Cole, formerly of the Sallie List, while on his way down the river with a fleet of flat-boats in tow, ran on to the wreck of the J. F. Thompson. The bottom was torn out of his boat, and most of his cargo was lost. This wreck we have alluded to on more than one occasion since the Totten claimed to have blown it up. It is now within some two feet of the surface, and is much more dangerous than ever before. Boatmen should be cautious of this obstruction. It should be removed immediately.

The fine, light draft packet Ozark, Captain Nowland, leaves for all points on the Arkansas, to-day at five p.m. She will get through without that stream dries up totally. Sam. Wood is chief clerk, and is one of the best in the business.

The J. S. McCune, Captain Duffer, will be in port to leave for White River on Thursday. Mr. Duff is pursser, and the redoubtable Geo. Fillmore is order clerk of the ship. George is old "biz." himself, and will give a good account of his talents.

The Ezra Porter, Captain Porter, will be in port this morning, and leave at ten a.m. for Cincinnati.

The Des Arc laid over yesterday. She will not leave for Vicksburg before Saturday.

The Belle St. Louis, Captain Zeigler, is the Thursday packet for Cairo and St. Louis.

Captain Frazier will haul out the Nightengale this evening, at five p.m., for St. Louis.

On the last trip of the Emma No. 3, from New Orleans to Cincinnati, Captain Marietta put a woman ashore at this port for indecently exposing herself and using improper language. She had come aboard at New Orleans, and represented herself as a widow woman without money, and the Captain agreed to carry her to Cincinnati if she would assist the stewardess in her duties. The woman arrived at Cincinnati a few days ago, and brought suit before Squire Hasselman against Captain Marietta for putting her ashore, claiming damages. The case was heard, and the Squire gave judgment against the Captain for fourteen dollars.

The Hydraulic Propeller is the name given to the latest application of motive power to steam vessels. A water wheel inside the vessel revolves in a metallic case perforated for the admission of water. Taking up the water as it enters the case, the wheel expels it again through two nozzles—one on each side above the water line, and thus gains a power similar to the recoil of a gun. Cheapness of fuel (or gain of force in proportion to its expenditure), absence of vibration, and more complete control in rough weather, are the advantages claimed. The apparatus is said to have been successfully tested in England.

The river posts of Mobile say: "Accounts from the Higbee are low water and plenty of cotterpillars. From the Alabama quite the reverse (lower part of the river accepted), being plenty of water and no cotterpillars. 'Sich is life.'"

The new bridge at Louisville, it seems, will be somewhat of a disappointment as they all are. The Courier says of it: "As we understand the case, the elevation of the bridge is to be only eighty feet from shore below water mark on the Indian chute. This forever debars such boats as the Richmond and Pomeroy passing the bridge. The bridge is even on rollers on the bottom of the river. The light of the Richmond's pilot-house at the top of her chimneys is one hundred and four feet. The Pomeroy's chimneys lowered, and she would still be thirty at any ordinary stage of water, as the top of her pilot house is sixty feet. See for yourself. There are seven spans now in commission and others building, all of which will stand higher out of water than the Richmond, and at high tide, with the bottom lands overflowed, not a boat in our trade or the Cincinnati or the Pittsburg trade, would be enabled to pass the bridge."

In England rivers are all states,
The Parliament, Congress of waters;
Whoever in Columbia sails
Sends them to the Senate and dames.

Yes, there the softer sex presides,
Adams, Queen Victoria,
And Mrs. Sippy rocks her tides
In the Mississippi.

The St. Louis Democrat of Monday says:

Only a dozen steamers at the wharf last evening. A crowd of sweltering Eastmen waiting on the wharf and waiting they did not come in. The river has dwindled away so since the 1st instant that the only boats that can get out of the Mississippi are compelled to bring produce to the port or else run empty for want of freight. Not a one-third or one-half of the amount that would warrant a boat to leave, and if some should not there be three or four boats employed for every one that is now here. The water is still falling, and the outlook continues dismal. We hear of no boat running above Cairo, and from there down it is very low. The water is only three feet deep on the bar at Cairo, and the channel is six and a half feet; below Cairo six feet; at Commerce, seven feet; at Memphis, eight feet; at Vicksburg, seven feet. Those in about three feet nine inches in the lower Mississippi. The Missouri river is very low, and the Ohio and Omaha, while the latitude has gone down so low that very little produce is coming down. The Illinois river is higher than any of the others, but no arrivals of consequence are reported. We do not look for the heavy receipts of produce here until more steamers and barges are sent above, or the rivers rise.

The Tax on Cotton.

The following judicious remarks on the cotton crop and the cotton tax are from the pen of G. W. Griffin, late editor-in-chief of the Industrial and Commercial Gazette:

There is every indication that the cotton crop for 1867 will be very small, even smaller than that of last year. Although a number of our cotemporaries express a contrary opinion, our own advices from Alabama, Mississippi, Texas and Louisana, are anything else but encouraging. In these States the worm and the overflow have destroyed nearly two-thirds of the entire crop, while in other parts of the country, where the seasons have been more favorable, the planters have, in many instances, been wholly unable to procure help. The freedmen, if they work at all, do not care to work in any other way than on shares, and usually demand one half of the crop for their services. This deluded class of human beings flatter themselves with the belief that a day of luxurious ease is near at hand; that the landed property of the South will be confiscated for their especial benefit, and that they will soon become the sole possessors of untold wealth. Their imaginations are filled with visions of splendor, and dreams of debasing servitude for their former masters. No wonder that they are sullen and insolent, when asked to labor. But these are not the only difficulties with which the Southern planter has to contend. His taxes are becoming daily more and more burdensome. Almost every article of human consumption is taxed. He is obliged not only to pay an indirect tax on everything necessary for growing the crop, but for the clothing he wears, the light he burns, and the books and papers he reads; and last, and meanest of all, has to pay a tax of two and a half cents on every pound of cotton he raises. Under these circumstances, it is not at all strange that cotton is no longer king; that, instead of sending millions of bales abroad, we find the supply scarcely equal to the demand at home, and that other countries and nations are cultivating it as well as our own, and are meeting with success undreamed of before. England, our greatest commercial rival, has not been idle. Her statesmen and political economists have exerted themselves beyond all precedent to force the culture of this indispensable article in their dominion. They have succeeded. In uniting their country to the Indian Empire, as it were, "by a bridge of gold." They have silenced the grumbling of the Sepoys, and quelled every disposition of mutiny and war. They have widened and deepened canals, and constructed new ones. They have built railroads, and bridged mountain chasms and mighty rivers. They have improved navigation, thrown up highways, and repaired common roads, and taught the ignorant inhabitants industry and sobriety. The great Peninsular and East Indian railroads, through which cotton is made marketable, were projected and built in a spirit of enterprise unsurpassed by any nation of modern times. During the coming year the former will pass from Bombay to Calcutta, a distance of fifteen hundred miles, while the latter has the longest unbroken line, under the management of one company, in the world.

In times gone by, we were able to boast that we monopolized the cotton market of England. Now she is independent of us, with the exception, that our cotton is of a better quality and better suited for manufacturing purposes. Shall we remain longer inactive, and make no effort to recover the supremacy from our aspiring rival? It would seem that there is no other way to awaken the American people to a sense of duty than by reminding them that we are losing our greatness as a nation. We have spoken unpleasant truths, but we have been compelled to give utterance to them.

The tax on our greatest staple should at once be repealed, for it is not only unjust, but disgraceful. Our legislators assembled should go to work in earnest and by a system of wise and judicious legislation, encourage the development of our agricultural resources, and afford every protection to our commercial interests, so that we can again wrest the scepter from England, who, with a grasping tyranny, has extended her sway over weaker empires, and, with an all-absorbing avarice, is aiming at the conquest of every clime where wealth is found.

A Wonderful Microscope.

The editor of the New York Sunday School Advocate, Rev. Daniel Wise, D. D., says:

The simplicity, cheapness and great magnifying power of the celebrated Craig microscope struck me with surprise. Then, I was examining a fly's eye by its aid, and was struck with wonder at the skill and power of the Creator which is displayed in the structure. When I saw a statement in an advertisement that this microscope magnified one hundred diameters, or ten thousand times, and could be bought for two dollars and fifty cents, I thought it was one of the many humbugs of the hour; for I had paid twenty dollars for a microscope not long before. But now I find it to be really a valuable instrument, which I should like to see introduced into the families of our readers in place of the many manifold useless toys which please for an hour and are then destroyed. This microscope would both amuse and instruct them, and I advise every boy and girl who wish to know the wonders which lie in little things, to save their money until they have two dollars and seventy-five cents, and send it to George Meade, Racine, Wisconsin, and they will promptly receive this beautiful microscope by mail, postage paid.

OUR TRADE.

The Movement to Let the People West of us Know What We Can Do for Them.

From the Nashville Banner, 16th.]

In accordance with the announcement heretofore published, a meeting of merchants representing all branches of trade, was held at the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday, to make arrangements for inviting to our city the business men, planters, and citizens generally, who reside along the line of the recently opened Nashville and Northwestern railroad—the object being to turn their attention in this direction, as the cheapest and best market within their reach. A very liberal fund was subscribed on the spot, and the following gentlemen appointed committees for the purpose indicated below:

COMMITTEE OF INVITATIONS,

It will be noticed that the gentlemen selected represent the most responsible and extensive houses of Nashville. Whatever they undertake to do will be well done.

The officers of the Northwestern railroad have engaged to offer every possible facility in the way of transportation for our visitors.

We hope that no citizen, no matter what branch of trade he may be engaged in, will fail to encourage this movement by as liberal a contribution as his means will possibly permit. Never was there such a chance for a "paying investment." For every cent expended there will not fail to be a full return. It is proposed to give a grand banquet and ball to our visitors next Friday at Hicks' Hall. We are by no means a stingy community, and an affair well worthy of Nashville and her merchants may be anticipated.

We publish the above, simply to show our Memphis merchants, what energetic movements are being made around them to divert trade, which naturally and properly belongs here. We leave them to profit by the knowledge or not, as they may see proper.

The stockholders in the Iron Mountain and Helena railroad have met and elected a board of directors for the ensuing year. With few exceptions the old board was re elected. Colonel David C. Cross was again chosen President unanimously. The greatest harmony prevailed, and determination to construct the road without delay strongly expressed.

Brooks the prompt payment at maturity of two certain promissory notes, and whereas said notes have long since become due and remain unpaid; now, therefore, by virtue of the power in me vested by said trust conveyance, I will, between the hours of 11 a.m. and 2 p. m., at the southeast corner of Court Square, in the city of Memphis, proceed to sell to the highest bidder, for cash, the property in said deed conveyed, described as follows, to wit: LOT NUMBER SIX, in the City of Memphis and known as lot No. 69 on the plan of said city, and fronting on the east by a stake on Washington avenue, a point where Robins and Lee's southeastern corner is fixed on said street, (its north side) in a deed made to said Brooks by John A. Lee and his wife Elizabeth, which deed is of record in the Register's office in book 10, pages 52 and 53, to which reference is here made; thence from this point so fixed east sixty-one feet on and with the north side of Washington street to said Brooks' southwestern corner on said street; thence on and with said Lee and wife's west boundary line 160½ feet to an alley; thence west 61 feet parallel with Washington street to a stake; thence south 160½ feet parallel with said Lee and wife's west line to the beginning.

On Monday, 7th of October, 1867,

Terms cash. This believed to be good, but I convey only as trustee. The equity of redemption is especially waived.

se1 R. F. KEAD, Trustee.
